WORKSHOP

Building High Performance Teams.

Offered through The Conference Board of Canada's Professional Development Institute

Building High Performance Teams is for team members from a single organization or individuals who want to learn and take away a proven process and tools for developing highly effective teams.

This program is designed for both experienced and new managers/leaders. It is appropriate for anyone who is in a position of leading a team whether it be a team of direct reports, a project team, or an executive team. The program will be most relevant for leaders looking to build a greater sense of team commitment, accountability and performance.

Ideal for Leaders of

● Self ● Team ● Department ● Division ● Organization

Core Learning Outcomes:

- Learn the key elements for creating highly effective teams
- Understand the leader's role in creating highly effective teams
- Work through practical exercises in generating personal and team commitment, engagement and accountability that can be employed to generate these same elements in your own teams and organizations
- Learn and practice tools for giving and receiving highly effective "impact" feedback for generating greater levels of team engagement and holding each other accountable
