PUBLIC PROGRAM

Taking the Stage®.

A Humphrey Group Program offered by The Niagara Institute

Specifically developed for women leaders, Taking the Stage® shows you how to take the stage, and speak with confidence, assertiveness, and an influential leadership presence.

This intensive two-day program will show you how to move beyond traditional female behaviours and seek recognition for yourself and your views.

You will learn how to develop a confident mindset that encourages you to speak up and have your voice heard. You will learn how to organize your thoughts with a clear message, persuasive structure, and strong, confident language.

Ideal for Leaders of

● Self ● Team ● Department ● Division ● Organization

Program Outcomes

- Learn to avoid “minimizing” behaviours.
- Adopt a mindset that embraces the ‘stage.’
- Portray yourself as a leader, not a doer.
- Convey your accomplishments.
- Develop a style that incorporates the best of “female” and “male.”
- Use your vocal power to engage others.
- Deliver clear, confident messages.
- Deal successfully with interruptions.
- Confidently drive home your ideas.
- Choose the language of leadership.
- Avoid apologies and mincing modifiers.

Key Program Features

- A program specifically designed for women leaders.
- Small group workshops, with a ratio of seven participants to one facilitator, will provide for extensive feedback and one-on-one coaching for all participants.
- Guidance in overcoming common female vocal and language traps.
- Individual feedback on your strengths and weaknesses when creating your scripts and delivering your messages.
- Practical experience involving several methods of communication through small group exercises.

Assessments

You will receive and complete a questionnaire that indicates your strengths and weaknesses in communication. There is also a short pre-read.
